

The newsletter from Angel Business Improvement District

NEWS 50/18 - April 2018

angel.london

Hello Angel! Welcome to the latest edition of the angel.london newsletter.

If you are a regular reader (we hope you are!) then you'll notice that we've had a bit of 'spring clean' and spruced up our e-news to make it easier for you to see the range of work we at angel.london are doing for you.

Do also look out towards the bottom of the newsletter to see what's going on in Angel in the coming month and the new faces in town! Happy reading and a very Happy Easter to you from us at angel.london!

(PS - do please forward this newsletter to any of your colleagues that you think may be interested)

SAFER - Acid attack (Project Diffuse) training a huge success

Earlier this month over 100 staff from businesses and organisations from the Angel BID area attended the acid attack training hosted by angel.london.

The event incorporated a truly lifelike simulation of an acid attack taking place within a nightclub setting and was led by the Met Police, London Fire Brigade and London Ambulance Service.

All those attended were able to witness the event unfold in 'real-time' and learnt key lessons in being the invaluable 'first responders' should such an incident take place within their own workplaces....

Read more

CLEANER – Easter Holidays DON'T affect our recycling services

As many businesses know angel.london offers a range of FREE recycling services from paper & cardboard to coffee grounds.

Well, in case you were wondering, we can proudly confirm that the upcoming Easter Bank Holiday will NOT affect our services! Our 'super squad' will continue the collection services over the Easter weekend, so you don't need to worry about any changes. Of course, do remember to include those empty Easter Egg boxes in your recycling!!

BRIGHTER – Bikes & blooms go hand in hand in Angel!

OK, so we may have had the 'Beast from the East' Parts 1 & 2 in March, but we can see the joys of spring everyday in Angel.

Over the last month more of our popular, useful and (if we say so ourselves) very pretty combined bike-racks and planters have been installed. 10 new Angel 'bike-rack-planters' have been installed around the BID area including Upper Street, Camden Passage and Chapel Market...

Read more

SAFER – Angel Police Team catches and charges prolific thief

We are sure you will all want to thank our wonderful Angel Police Team in catching and charging one of the most prolific thieves in Angel.

On Tuesday 6 March, Kelly Vigors was charged with eight counts of theft, one count of burglary and one count of fraud and the next day she pleaded guilty at Thames Magistrates Court to all charges...

Read more

BRIGHTER – Islington in Bloom 2018 sponsorship opportunities available

ISLINGTON IN BLOOM

Do you love everything floral as much as we do? Islington in Bloom is a local horticultural competition open to anyone in the borough to enter.

If you want to support the awards whilst getting publicity for your business there are a variety of award categories - from Best Children's Planting to Best Blooming Pub & Business - that local businesses can sponsor, starting at just £400...

Read more

CLEANER – New bins... No ifs, no butts!

Have you spotted the new bins that are on the streets around the BID area?

Well, the new bins started to be installed earlier this month and the programme of replacement will go on until June by which time 15 new bins will be in place in strategic locations across Angel...

Read more

STRONGER – Business events coming to the BDC in April

Knowledge is power right? At angel.london we want to ensure all businesses in Angel know what's going on and the events that could well bring customers to your door.

Well, as your helpful friend, here is the low-down of the conferences and exhibitions taking place at the Business Design Centre in April 2018...

Read more

BRIGHTER – Theatre & Dance Performances in Angel: April 2018

We all know that Angel is perfect for a cultured evening and as such our theatres and performance venues bring thousands of visitors to our area each month.

To make sure you are 'in the know', here's a summary of the theatrical and dance performances taking place over the coming month...

Read more

We're publicising and marketing the Angel as a destination, and are delighted that new stores and businesses are keen to be part of it...

KANADA-YA RAMEN BAR

35 Upper Street

www.kanada-ya.com/angel

Angel is the third London location for this highly respected Ramen Bar. For those yet to discover the joys of ramen it is quick-cooking noodles typically served in a delicious broth with meat and / or vegetables. Kanada-Ya has swiftly developed a loyal following and has received amazing plaudits like this one on mrporter.com

SIX DEGREES

22-24 Camden Passage

www.sixdegreescollective.com

Six Degrees is an independent, family-run café, serving multi-award winning loose leaf teas, specialty coffee and healthy homemade food. Open from 7.30am on weekdays making it a perfect place to fuel up for the day ahead. What's not to love?

JOHN CARMICHAEL

Marketing & Communications Manager
angel.london

OK, so we're cheating a bit here as John is not a new business or store in Angel, but John is the newest member of the team at angel.london and he wants to help you promote your business! So if you've got a story to tell, event going on, offer to promote, or anything else you want to shout about then let John know at john@angel.london

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

MailChimp.